Drouth A Blessing.

The old adage: "Tis an ill wind that blows nobody good," is being recited by farmers at present in talking of the drouth, and many of them believe it is only a harbinger of excellent crops next summer. "A long drouth, such as the one afflicting the State now always has a good effect," said an old-time farmer whose observations on such matters have always been interesting. "A long dry spell always has an excellent effect on ground and seemingly acts as a fertilizer," he continued. "The mineral properties so necessary to the production of good crops, seems to be brought to the surface by drouth, and when rain does come, the ground is as fertile as if it had not been used in years. For this reason farmers are confident that good crops will be harvested next year. Of course the cropping season must be half way decent, but if this is the case a record breaking season will be registered without doubt. Many comparisons have been made between this drouth and that of 1854, which swept over the State in the middle of the cropping season. Corn and wheat were burned in the field, forest trees were bursted from top to base from drying and stock died by the hundreds. Luckily the present dry conditions have come when the crops were all put away and wheat is the only staple that can be injured. Numerous farmers are not sure that the latter will be hurt to any extent. If the wheat had not sprouted before the dry spell appeared it would not have grown until rain fell, or if it had pushed above the ground it would be safe, but if the sprout was just peeping from the shell, the grain would surely rot and ruin the crop.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Ten lives were lost in a gale which swept the coast of Scotland.

POLITICAL.

Jerry B. Richardson has been appointed postmaster at Big Hill, Madison county.

The prohibition ticket only polled six votes in the entire State of Florida at the last election.

At the Boston, Mass., municipal election, Alderman J. H. Curley, who is serving a two-months' sentence, was elected Democrat, as usual, swept things.

Representative Gilbert has assurance that the Public Building Committee will report favorably on the proposition to erect a government building at Lawrenceburg, Ky.

Elections Committee No. 2 of the House has decided to take up the contested case of Edwards against Hunter and White against Hunter, from the Eleventh Kentucky district, on the 10th of January.

County Attorney C. S. Hill's contest against his opponent, W. N. Spalding, resulted in a victory for the latter. A re-count of the ballots gave Mr. Spalding a majority of 23, and the committee was unanimous in giving him the certificate of election, save a Lebanon dispatch.

MATRIMONIAL.

Coy Sanders, of Garrard, and Miss Snyder, of Madison, were married this week.

Henry Ray and Miss Alma Austin, of Garrard, drove to Danville and were married.

David Anderson, a widower of 25, and Miss Mollie Saylor, sweet 16, were married at the bride's residence Wednesday.

Squire Major and Miss Sarah Broughton, of Brantsville, Garrard county, were married in Lexington. The bride is only 17 years old.

A battle was fought between several persons at Baxter, Harlan county, resulting in the death of John L. Jones and John P. Howard. The encounter was the result of an old quarrel.

William Osborne, who killed two men in a fight in Johnson county 18 months ago, has been arrested at Jackson. A reward of $200 had been offered for his arrest and return to Johnson county.

Slow progress is being made in the Marcum damage suit at Winchester. Mrs. Marcum was the first witness called, testifying that her husband had told her of threats on his life. Capt. B. J. Ewen related the killing of Marcum, saying he saw Curt Jett with a smoking revolver in his hand after the fatal shot had been fired.

Instead of being discouraged as a result of the third reversal by the Court of Appeals of the judgment of the Scott circuit court in the case of Caleb Powers, three times convicted of complicity in the Goebel murder conspiracy, it is said that Arthur Goebel, brother of the murdered Governor, will go into the prosecution for another trial with renewed energy. He has written friends that he will never cease his efforts to secure the conviction of the guilty parties and will lend all the aid within his power to the side of the Commonwealth.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKES.

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

ASHBURNHAM, ONT., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your cough remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your cough remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy. E. A. Langfeldt, M. A., Rector St. Luke's Church. To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Head About to Burst From Severe Bilious Attack.

"I had a severe bilious attack and felt like my head was about to burst when I got hold of a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I took a dose of them after supper and the next day felt like a new man and have been feeling happy ever since," says Mr. J. W. Smith, of Julliff, Texas. For biliousness, stomach troubles and constipation, these tablets have no equal. Price 25 cents. For sale by all druggists.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Kirkland Hardin, alias Oscar Hoglands, colored, was lodged in jail at Danville charged with having broken into the store of Center & Co.

Dolph Rice, formerly of Danville, but now of Louisville, has taken the bankrupt law. He has debts aggregating $1,656, and he claims nearly half of his assets, which are scheduled as $435, as exempt.

We understand that the new bank, probably to be located in the south end of the city, is to be called The Citizens' Bank; that Dr. George M. Readish will be the president and O. H. Waddle vice president, the cashier yet to be named. The capital stock will be $25,000.—Somerset Journal.

The freight train that was recently wrecked near High Bridge was loaded with chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese and lumber. Hundreds of fowls got out of the bursted coops and are now roosting in the cliffs. Many people got meat enough to last them several days and one man got 210 dozen eggs that out of thousands escaped being broken.—Harrodsburg Herald.

SOMERSET.

The fact that it is impossible for few comers to get houses to live in goes to prove that Somerset is rapidly growing. Houses are going up in all parts of town and for every house there are from 10 to 15 applicants.

The proposed street car line from South Somerset will no doubt be in operation before many months have passed. Somerset has a bright future and we predict that in five years it will be a town of 15,000 or 20,000 inhabitants.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall, of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by Penny, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free.

The smallest inhabited island in the world is that on which Eddystone light house stands, for at low water it is only 30 feet in diameter. At high water the base of the lighthouse, which has a diameter of little over 28 feet, is completely covered by water.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

Miller—I say, old chap, does your wife still call you by the sweet names she used to?

Farmer—Oh yes—that is to say, with some slight variations. Instead of "honey," for example, she now uses the kindred term "old beeswax."

Teacher—Now, then, Johnny, can you tell me how the earth is divided?

Johnny—Yessam; into republicans and democrats.

THE HOME OF VINOL

To People with Weak Lungs:—
You know that for centuries Cod Liver Oil has been considered the best medicine for throat and lung troubles, but its nauseating effect upon the stomach made it impossible for many to take it. Now—days Vinol accomplishes greater results, for while it is a Cod Liver Oil preparation, it is entirely free from oil or grease, and therefore it is fast taking the place of old-fashioned Cod Liver Oil and Emulsions.—Respectfully,

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

MARVELOUS as the financial schemes of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick may be, through the manipulation of which she has humbled many a proud capitalist and destroyed the savings of hundreds of people, still more marvelous is the assertion of her attorneys that she is not liable nor can she be proven guilty in the United States court on the accusation of forgery for the mere reason that she simply exhibited the spurious notes alleged to have been endorsed by Andrew Carnegie, neither uttering them for sale, barter nor exchange, and as a matter of fact never obtaining one cent on the notes themselves. Unfortunately only small thieves suffer the penalties of the law, the big ones get clemency for their meanness.

A NEW YORK newspaper, after a canvass, says that Roosevelt received 7,640,560 votes and Parker 5,094,391. In 1900 McKinley got 7,207,923 and Bryan 6,358,133. The total in that year was 13,566,056. This year it was 12,734,951, a falling off of $31,115 votes, whereas the gain should have been about 3 per cent. Taking the New York paper's figures as correct, Parker received 1,263,742 votes less than Bryan and Roosevelt some 400,000 more than McKinley. It will thus be seen that it was the stay-at-home democrats that did the turn for Roosevelt. Had all of them done their duty Parker would have been elected.

BECAUSE the Boston Herald published a story that President Roosevelt's children tormented a turkey nearly to death, that great man has retaliated by forbidding the paper to have any news from the government, not even the weather reports and predictions. Small business for a big man, but what Teddy wouldn't do isn't in the dictionary.

THE Lexington Democrat sent out a tabulated statement of the official vote of Kentucky in its issue of Wednesday. It furnishes quite an interesting study for those who make a business of politics and will prove a handy reference for future calculations.

THE comptroller of the currency says we ought to have more $5 notes and we can see where he is right. That's one proposition in his annual report with which everybody, irrespective of party, will agree.

Defeated but Still Democratic Is Mr. McCarty.

To my friends and the Democrats of Lincoln County: I am as loyal to the cause of democracy now as I have always been. I thank my friends who saw cause to support me in the late primary and here I take the opportunity to render unto them my personal thanks and also pledge my humble services to the victorious candidates of the primary and urge my friends to lend their efforts and support to the cause of democracy in the ensuing November election. Resp't.

A Costly Mistake.

Mr. Hill's Reply to Mr. DeBord's Open Letter.

MR. G. W. DEBORD—My Dear Sir:—I have read in the INTERIOR JOURNAL of the 13th inst. your "open letter," addressed to myself.

In the first paragraph you say: "Rather than file grounds for a contest, well knowing that out of us have possibly voted illegal votes, I ask a re-count of the ballots voted in the primary of Dec. 31." If it was your purpose to ask of me a personal favor, the granting of which lay entirely in my personal discretion, I am at a loss to understand why you thought it proper to publish your request. If on the other hand you conceived that I have no authority to either grant or refuse your request, I am at a greater loss to understand why you addressed me at all.

Rather than rest under a mere suspicion of discourtesy, I will, however, reply by saying that I have no legal power to grant your request. I have no authority to open the ballot boxes, nor have you, nor have both of us together. You should bear in mind that primary elections are held under a State law. This law allows the opening of the boxes and a re-count of the ballots only in case of a contest. The Democratic County Committee now has the custody of these boxes and all of the returns. The State law and the party law prescribe the duties of this committee, give to it its only power and limit its authority. Individual members of the party cannot by agreement among themselves add to these powers, or take away from them. You should also bear in mind that this primary election was called and held, not to adjust any conflict or claim between you and myself, but rather as a mode of selecting the party's nominees for the several county offices. It was the party's method, prescribed by it and executed by it, only to enable it to utilize and make effective its entire strength in a possible contest with political opponents. You and I were but inconspicuous factors, mere incidents, in this elective transaction. Yet the democratic committee allowed you, equally with other candidates, to have a voice in the selection of the officers of the election. You exercised your privilege and had your personal friends at nearly every poll. These officers have certified the vote. Are you now willing to believe that any of them are guilty of fraud or mistake? On their certificate the Democratic Committee declared me the nominee, and I propose to abide this result, as I have heretofore acquiesced in adverse results.

You should also bear in mind that besides the candidates for sheriff, nomination there were many other candidates for nomination for other county offices. Each of these has as much at stake in the preservation, according to law, of the ballot boxes and returns as either you or myself. Surely, on calm reflection, you cannot think that even the committee could open these boxes and count the ballots in the absence of a contest, and thus place in possible jeopardy the right of others, who have already been declared nominees. I do not hesitate to express the opinion that if the committee should undertake such procedure any one of the declared nominees could stop it by proper legal proceedings.

Allow me to finally add that you have heretofore and repeatedly been honored by your party's nomination. When your certificate of nomination was awarded you I did not hear of any one who asked you to go behind the returns, nor did I hear of any one even entertaining a feeling that the election officers had been guilty of error or mistake. I trust that there will not now be inaugurated any movement which may imperil the safety of the democratic ticket, or obstruct the free course of party harmony. Most Resp't.

T. J. HILL, SR.

Letter From Rev. Hagin.

On Nov. 16th I closed my work at Stanford, after four of the happiest and most profitable years of my life. In that congregation are many of "God's noblemen" and a throng of able, pure, consecrated women who have chosen the "better part" and find their highest joy in the Master's service. Stanford is alive to every good work and is capable of doing much in the Lord's vineyard. In 1904 the church raised for all purposes nearly $2,300. With the recent improvements, they have one of the prettiest audience rooms in the State outside the cities.

There were five additions on the last Sunday I spent there. With a suitable leader the future of the Stanford church is bright with hope. May God abundantly bless him who is called to minister to this congregation of Godly people, in whose behalf I ever "bow my knees unto the Father" that he will grant them every good thing. I declined a unanimous call to Stanford for the fifth year in order to take up the work at the Fourth Street Church Covington. The work here has begun with encouraging features, good audiences and additions at every service. Since I began, two additions last Lord's day. Observed Rally Day and reached our appointment, $25.—Christian Companion, Dec. 7.

The jury has been completed at last in the Gillespie murder case at Rising Sun, Ind.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Baptist church of Danville has called Rev. W. L. Dorgan, of Louisville.

Elder Joseph Ballou will preach at the Christian church on next Sunday morning.

May Young, ten years old, over-excited because she was to recite a verse at a Sunday-school entertainment, dropped dead in Brooklyn.

Sunday morning at a special session of the Assembly Presbyterian church, Rev. M. P. Yeaman, of Ferguson, Mo., was unanimously called to the pastorate of the church.—Harrodsburg Herald.

The revival services which have been in progress at the Baptist church at Harrodsburg for the past two weeks, closed, resulting in 34 additions. The pastor of the church, Rev. W. M. Wood, was assisted in the meeting by Dr. W. D. Nowlin, of Owensboro.

The Sunday school children of Maysville will this year reverse the order of things by dispensing charity instead of being recipients of presents. They have appointed committees to hunt up the poor and destitute children of the city and on Christmas eve they will distribute gifts among those whom the committees find.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Jas. H. Baughman bought the Alex Traylor farm on Dix River at $22.75.

The best sale of turkeys of which we have yet heard was made by Mrs. Geo. M. Proctor, of Clark county. She sold 75 for $180. She got 14c per pound.—Harrodsburg Herald.

At the "Old Glory" sale in Madison Square Garden, New York, which has just closed after a two weeks' run, of the 1,041 horses catalogued, 966 sold for $441,068, an average of $456.50. On November 24, 96 horses sold for $140,520, an average of $1,463.

DR. W. N. CRAIG has a bird in his show window that is attracting a good deal of attention. It looks like a species of duck but there are those who claim it is a mud hen. Any way it is a bird for this section and the doctor values it highly.

THE official vote of this district shows that Hon. G. G. Gilbert received 16,481 votes and that Mr. N. D. Miles got 14,536, a majority for Mr. Gilbert of 1,945, which isn't bad for an off year. Mr. A. W. Carpenter, the prohibition nominee, received 461 votes, as follows: 21 in Anderson, 42 in Boyle, 88 in Jessamine, 176 in Lincoln, 36 in Mercer, 34 in Rockcastle, 55 in Shelby and nine in Spencer. He got no votes either in Garrard or Madison.

FIRE—The home of Mr. J. L. Campbell on Hustonville pike burned at a late hour Tuesday night. The origin of the fire is a mystery and Mr. Campbell was lucky in getting out with his life. He awoke when a piece of burning timber fell on him and he jumped from a window as quickly as he could. He did not have time to get even a suit of clothes, notwithstanding the cold night. All of his household and kitchen furniture was destroyed and the loss falls heavily on him, although he had a small amount of insurance. The house was owned by Mr. J. H. Greer and was insured. Mr. Campbell's family was visiting in Casey at the time of the fire and he was the sole occupant of the house.

REV. J. W. HAGIN came over from Covington and preached the funeral of Miss Maude McCreary Varnon, and a most beautiful one it was. A large number of friends heard the appropriate discourse and followed the remains to Buffalo Cemetery. The death of this bright, lovable girl is an unusually sad one and many an eye, unaccustomed to shedding tears, dropped one as the little casket was lowered into its last resting place. Judge Varnon tells us that the people of Hendersonville, N. C., where Maude was taken for her health and where her little light went out, were exceedingly kind and attentive to her and his family made many friends there. Maude was a general favorite and her untimely death caused much sorrow at Hendersonville, as well as at her home here.

AN automobile from Lexington to ply between Burnside and Monticello got out of shape here and the gentlemen in charge spent several days in Stanford working on the machine. The auto formerly belonged to L. H. Ramsey, of Lexington, and is an immense one.

In a week or so we will begin a "serial story" on the nominees of the primary of Dec. 3d. Our object in doing this is to make the voters of Lincoln county better acquainted with the gentlemen who are to serve them in an official capacity four years, beginning Jan. 1, 1906. Their bad "pints," if they have any, as well as their good "pints" will be given a full airing.

JOE NEVUS MARRIED.—A Lancaster special says that Miss Pearl Hill and Mr. Joe Nevus, of that place, were married at the Christian parsonage by Elder F. M. Tuder. Mr. Nevus is an old Stanford boy and his legion of friends here extend their warmest congratulations. He is a son of Mrs. Mattie Nevus and is an energetic, sober and honorable young man. His bride is both pretty and popular.

A FORTUNE IN RENT.—Col. T. P. Hill tells us that Mr. L. B. Nunnally and his two sons, Messrs. R. C. and A. R. Nunnally, have between them been renters on his farms in the Peyton's Well section for nearly 25 years, and they have paid him over $20,000 in rent. He has never asked them for a cent of money, they always paying promptly when or before the rent was due. There has never been the slightest misunderstanding and it gives the colonel pleasure to say that he has never had dealings with better men. Col. Hill has also had as renters for 20 years Barney Bright and his son, Henry Bright, colored, and they have paid him a little the rise of $18,000. He says Bright and his son are exceptionally good darters and he would trust them for almost any amount.

XMAS OPENING—On next Monday night we will have our Xmas opening. Come and see the finest display of candies, fruits and cakes ever shown in Stanford. J. T. Jones & Co.

OUR "football editor," Mr. Cecil Williams, is now a full-fledged druggist at Somerset. The Journal contains an attractive advertisement of M. C. Williams & Son, the junior member of the firm being Cecil. He is a fine boy and it was with regret that we gave him up.

Dragging Pains
2825 Keeley St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groins. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain.
What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

STANFORD, - KENTUCKY

Oldest Confederate Veteran.
In Patrick Clark, of Lucky Hill, on the Southern railway, between Remington and Bealton, Fauquier county, can boast of probably the oldest Confederate veteran living to-day.
Born in Ireland in 1794, he emigrated to this country when a small lad, with his parents. At 18 he enlisted in the American navy and served through the entire war of 1812.

In 1847 he joined the Eight United States regulars, sailed from New York City to Vera Cruz, was placed in Gen.
Worth's famous division and took an active part in all the fighting that led up to the capture of the City of Mexico.
At the close of the Mexican war he was discharged at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri.

He served four years in the Confederate army, a member of the Sixth Louisiana Infantry, in Early's division, army of Northern Virginia, and was a participant in some of the fiercest engagements of that bloody period.

His general health is excellent, he can walk around, appears to be very cheerful and experiences a great delight in describing the numerous conflicts in which he has taken part. He is entirely blind; is very hard of hearing and is almost entirely dependent upon a pension of $12 a month which he receives from the National government for his services in the Mexican war.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Representative O'mstead, of Pennsylvania, says that old Dr. Levi Bull was a clergyman of the Episcopal faith and lived in Chester county, his State, many years ago. The good old doctor was called upon to baptize a child, the offspring of a family with the surname of Frog. Without any preliminary observations the father and mother were called to the front at the end of the second part or lesson of the service.

"Name this child," said the doctor.
"We name it after you sir," said the mother in a low tone as she headed the baby to the doctor.

"Oh, but you named the last after me. It was christened Levi," said the midwife.

"Well, doctor, call this one after another name."

And so the minister did, christening it Bull, and the youngster went forth with the cognomen, Bull Frog.

When you want a pleasant purgative agreeable effect. For sale by all drug-

Carnegie will get $1.50 a day and five doubtless be the only money he really earned in all his life, says the Lexington Democrat.
